Remuneration

DID YOU KNOW?

Small differences in both investment performance and fees and costs can have a substantial impact on your long-term returns?

For example, total annual fees and costs of 2.0% of your account balances rather than 1.0% could reduce your final return by up to 20% over a 30-year period (for example, reduce it from $100,000 to $80,000).

You should consider whether features such as superior investment performance or the provision of better member services justify higher fees and costs. Your employer may be able to negotiate to pay lower administrative fees. Ask the fund or your financial adviser.

TO FIND OUT MORE

If you would like to find out more, or see the impact of fees based on your own circumstances, see the ASIC Moneysmart website (www.moneysmart.gov.au) which has a Managed Investment fee calculator to help you check out the different fee options.

Fees and other costs

This document shows fees and other costs that you may be charged. These fees and costs may be deducted from your money, from the returns on your investment or from the assets of the Managed Investment Scheme as a whole.

Your advice documents will contain full details of any fees and charges that are payable. Some of the fees charged may include:

- Plan Preparation Fee & Implementation Fee – the fee to prepare and implement our Advice
- Establishment fee* – the fee to open your investment
- Contribution fee* – you may pay contribution fees upfront (at the time you make each investment into the Managed Investment Scheme)
- Ongoing FinAdvisory Service Fee – working with you on an ongoing basis and regularly reviewing your portfolio
- Withdrawal fee – the fee on each amount you take out of your investment
- Exit fee – the fee to close your investment
- Management costs – the fees and costs for managing your investment
- Service fees*

- Switching fee – the fee for changing investment options

* These fees may include an amount payable to your adviser.

Any of these payments listed above will be charged by us as agreed with you or as permitted by law.

If the remuneration (including commissions) or other benefits can be calculated at the time we give you the personal advice, it will be disclosed to you at the time it is given or as soon as practicable after that time. If the remuneration (including commissions) or other benefit cannot be calculated at the time we provide you with personal advice, it will be disclosed to you as soon as practicable.

You should read all the information about fees and costs.

Additional Explanation of Fees and Costs

Plan Preparation and Implementation Fee

You may be charged an upfront financial planning service fee based on either:

- A flat fee;
- Time spent preparing your SoA (or other advice document); or
- The value of the funds you choose to invest.

You may have the option to choose how this fee can be paid. You may be invoiced when we provide you with your SoA (or another advice document), or you may have the option of paying via your investment product.

Should you agree to pay this fee then choose not to proceed with the implementation of our advice, the fee shall still be payable.

Ongoing FinAdvisory Service Fee

You may be charged an ongoing fee for us to manage your investment. This fee will be between 0.41% and 2.75% per annum of total funds under management.

You may enter into an Ongoing Service Agreement with us that may include services such as ongoing advice, newsletters, regular reviews and portfolio valuation reports. You and your financial adviser shall discuss the services to be included, and the fee that you will pay, either before, or at the time, you are presented with your SoA.

Brokerage

You may be charged a fee for trading in a financial product. You may also be charged clearing interest, interest and administrative or related transaction costs such as off market transfer fees. This will be an additional cost to you.

Commissions

We may also receive commission payments from insurance providers for life risk insurance products (other than for members of a group superannuation fund or entity). In some cases, your financial adviser may be entitled to a portion of these payments.

If these products are recommended to you, more detail will be provided in the SoA.

There may be either or both, an initial and/or ongoing commission payable to us. Please note that while the commissions are payable based on the premium you pay, the commissions do not form part of your premium and are not an additional fee to you. The contribution (entry) fees and management costs are normally calculated as a percentage of the relevant amount you have invested in the product. All fees are paid directly to SIRA Group and then paid to FinAdvice Financial Planning Pty Ltd. SIRA Group and FinAdvice Financial Planning Pty Ltd reserve the right to change the fees charged without your consent by giving 30 days' notice.

You may pay for the services by a combination of the options listed above.

SIRA Group may be eligible to receive sponsorship in the form of cash payments from product providers listed on the approved product list. Amounts may vary per product provider.

Your financial adviser does not share directly in the sponsorship payments, but may benefit indirectly through the provision of subsidised conference and professional development training costs.

If you purchase or sell direct securities through us, we may receive a fee for these transactions. Details of which will be disclosed in either an SoA or an RoA.

Your financial adviser may be invited to attend social or sporting events and may receive an occasional gift such as a hamper on special occasions. These benefits will be less than $300. Your financial adviser keeps a register of other benefits received with a value between $100 & $300.

These registers are available with seven days written notice

Any of the payments listed above will be made to the extent permitted by law.
